EDINBURGH—Lady Stair's Close.
Orlette

LL5949

TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

Lady Stair's Close. On the right in the foreground is the house of Eleanor, Dowager Countess of Stair, recently almost rebuilt by Lord Rosebery. The large open close to the circular building on the left leads into the Lawnmarket, and in this building, which stands in Baxter's Close, Robert Burns once lodged.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" [Regd.] Postcard 7322. "EDINBURGH." Series II.
From "EDINBURGH," illustrated by F. Fullylove, R.I. (A. & C. Black).

Printed in England.

CTPA12_8